

HAMBLEDON PARISH COUNCIL

Data protection policy

The Data Protection Act 1998 established an Information Commissioner who maintains a public register of data controllers. Local authorities are amongst those that are required to register.

Hambledon Parish Council's register entry describes in general terms the personal data which it processes. Data are held on the register for three purposes

- the provision of local services
- campaigns, public relations and fund raising
- staff agent and contractor administration.

The registration number is Z8013009 and the entry is renewed annually.

The Data Protection Register is published on the internet and can be found at <http://www.dpr.gov.uk>

February 2009