LITERATURE IN CHURCH

MISSIONARY MAGAZINES.

The various Societies supported by our parish send us copies of their magazines and other literature from time to time and these are placed on the window ledge near the Church door. Please take away any of this literature, it is quite free.

A HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

has recently been printed and there are copies in Church
Price 2/-.

FALCON BOOKLETS

Copies of these excellent booklets are on sale at the Church. New titles have recently been added to the series, including the following :-

"Teaching our children to Pray"	by Helen R. Lee.	(9d)
"Beginning a New Life with Christ"	by J.R.W. Stott	(9d)
"Bible Reading and Prayer"	by R.B. Gorrie	(9d)
"Baptism into Christ"	by A.M. Stibbs	(9d)
"A letter from a Surgeon"	by S. Farrant Russel. FRCS	(1/-)
"Life after Death"	by Peter B. Coombs	(9d)
"Thinking towards Confirmation"	by Martin Parsons	(1/6)

"BE STILL THEN AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD"

(Psalm 46 v 10).

"Many find God in quietness. Please do not unthinkingly disturb them in their quest".

This request is made to the congregation of a well known New York Church. Perhaps we could repeat it here.

THE MISSIONS TO SEAMEN

An extract from a letter acknowledging our contribution to the funds of the Missions :-

I write on behalf of the Council of The Missions to Seamen to send our grateful thanks for the gift you have made to our Society's funds. We warmly appreciate the concern and interest of all members of your Church family.

" "The Church is committed to mission as the expression of God's love for the world, and cannot be content to fulfil its obligation in haphazard fashion". (Toronto 1963 booklet on Mutual Responsibility and Interdependence, page 19).

It would indeed be "haphazard" to forget the world's large and varied population of seafarers, men of many races whose special problems and spiritual needs call for the love of God expressed in the care of His Church.

We believe that this care is expressed in our clubs and hostels in ports all around the world.

The seafarers themselves help to supply the necessary funds for the material upkeep of these buildings, but we must rely very largely on the interest of our friends at home, and of the Church in our homeland, to provide for the stipends of our missionary staff and for their necessary expenses, leave travel etc.

Your loyal help in this endeavour makes a valuable contribution to a necessary outreach of the Church.
