ST. PETER'S HAMBLEDON

AUGUST 1980

THE RECTOR WRITES ......

Many of us were praying especially during the recent days when Robert Ashe, working for the Red Cross Organisation on the Thai border, was blindfolded and taken captive for some four days before being released and allowed back again. It was a dangerous moment, and reminds us that, though Robert himself has won the respect of all sides (he was recently awarded the MBE for his services) there is always the possibility of the unpredictable happening.

Bet it be a fresh spur to our prayers, both for Robert, and for the rest of the Ashe family whether in Thailand or at home here in Busbridge, and also for our own Paul Atkins and Faith Hansford who are out there working in the team.

Paul too has been right up in the fighting area, under fire, ferrying wounded children back to hospital, and administering food among tens of thousands in the camps. Extracts of his recent letter were read in Church on 6 July, and gave us a vivid picture of the present situation. We owe it to them to pray regularly for God's protection, and His blessing on all they do.

Now Miss Anne Butler, who is a matron at King Edward's School, and has often worshipped with us, is to go to Hongkong to share in the enormous task of relief that goes on there.

CHURCH REGISTERS

Baptisms:

Burial: Constance Mary White (84) July 10

Connie White, who died in hospital at the age of 84, held a rather special place in the affections and memories of us all. though she was born in London, the death of her father in her very early years brought her to finish her schooling in Witley. So it was that she lived in Worrley and nearby for more than 70 years, and served on the household staffs of several local lomes.

During the last 16 years, in Cherryhurst, she first nursed her former husband Albert Pullen during his last long illness; then, after her subsequent marriage to Fred White, she was later widowed again. So hers was far from being an easy life, and she had also to cope with recurring bouts of illness and depression.

Yet what we chiefly remember was an affect: onate lively nature, and a great zest for life. She was in everything that went on - the Woren's Institute of course, The Evergreens at Witley, and every possible social occasion: while on her holidays even at the age of over 50 she would set off on foreign tours as the life aid soul of the party.

We specially remember her lifelong memberslip of our church. Even in the chilly months of February and March this year she only missed one Sunday. We thank God for the faith that lies benind that, and for God's promises which means so much to us.

Her son Mr Alan Pullen and his wife would like to express here their thanks to all who sent letters or tributes, They are most grateful for many kindnesses.

PERSONALIA

DR JACK SYMONDS, though held back for a few days with an infection, has in general been recovering well from the operation on his hip joint, and it is good to see him walking fairly comfortably now. MRS HARCOURT-WILTIAMS has been sick at home with bronchitis, and had just emerged when a second attack sent her back again. Some of the children of our Church School have been patients in the children's Ward of the new hospital:— LISA MONKS had a minor eye operation; and SEAN KERSLAKE had what was feared to be meningitis, but which later proved to be pneumonia.

GIFT OF A TABLE

Our best thanks go to Mr and Mrs Fearson for their kind gift of a table, for use at Church especially at marriages when the registers are being signed. We are most grateful for this useful gift.

SFONSORED SWIM FOR THE NURSING SCHOOL

Mr and Mrs Bolton organised a sponsored swim at King Edward's School pool on 19 July followed by a cooked supper at their home. Thirteen members of our Sunday Senior Group swam an aggregate of 449 lengths, an average of 34 each, and the total given by sponsors is likely to be over £70. The money goes to The Royal Surrey School of Nursing which is in desperate need of new premises. The present accommodation is condemned as inadeguate, but no money is available from the Government. An attempt is being made to raise £600,000 by public subscription before the end of 1981, ready for when the next phase of the new County Hospital begins in 1982.

At the last meeting of the larochial Church Council on 14 July our attention was drawn to the "Williams Report", which after some two years deliberation is now laying before the Government its proposals to liberalise the present laws.

It would seem that the proposals, if carried into law, would remove pornographic material from the ordinary newsagents shops (which is good), but would allow special shops to be opened where much more extreme pornography(including even beastiality) could be freely on sale to anyone over the age of 18. One cannot think that it would then be possible to stop it falling into the hands of those under 18, and indeed of young children. Even as it is, teachers in our present schools are troubled about the material which is being handed around in the second form of our senior schools. The new proposals would also remove any restrictions in theatre or cinema on pornography, and would a low its free advertisement. It would also, apparently, allow the sending of such material through the post to anyone, unsolicited, (the very reverse of freedom).

The Home Secretary has asked for the public to express its attitudes by the end of July! We very much hope time will not be quite so restricted as that, and that in August too a very large number of our nation will express their strong disagreement with the Williams line. Our Church Council feels that the present laws need to be tightened, not liberalised, and believes that a large "silent majority" may well agree. In view of the Home Secretary's request, it is time for us not to be silent. A letter to the Home Secretary, or even the signing of the petition at Church, could be a way of speaking. No doubt there are strong vested interests on the other side.

" THE CELLAR"

Not all of our members may yet be aware of the existence of The Cellar, the small cafe which was opened some months ago near to Waitrose's store at 42 High Street, Godalming.

While it is deliberately not overladen with Christian posters or display, it is in fact a Christian project, and is managed by a Christian Committee, and by Colin Primett whom they have appointed in charge. Its purpose is to serve simple refreshments at a very reasonable cost, and to provide (not least for young people in the evenings) a place other than licensed premises where they can find refreshments and the opportunity to meet and talk to friends. This is a service which was greatly needed in Godalming, as it is in many other towns.

The Cellar is much used during the day, and particularly in the evenings it is often crowded with young people. Several of our own Young People's Group help down there in the evenings.

Colin Primett and the management ask for our prayers that God will use and bless this link between Young People in our district and the Christians who serve there.

Why not call in for a light lunch, or a concup of coffee, sometime?

AUGUST PROGRAMMES

Though Sunday Club is in obeyance during the school holidays season, Children's Church continues on the first and third Sundays of the month.

The Wednesday evening Bible Studies also continue, fortnightly, in the Rectory at 8.15 pm, and the August dates are 13th and 27th.

HA BLEDON SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

A dry day, very well stocked stalls, a large number of cheerful supporters, and much hard work by the Committee brought notable success at the School lete, and we congratulate their members and particularly their Chairman Mrs Stephenson, who sends this letter:

"Our summer Fete held on 12th July raised £210-51p. On behalf of the Committee I would like to thank all those people who contributed items for the stalls, and also those who gave their support by joining us for the afternool. The money raised will be spent on extra equipment for the School.

B. Stephenson Chairman"
