CHURCH FELLOWSHIP.

December Meeting. Owing to the Christmas holiday, this magazine goes to press earlier than usual, and a report about the meeting will appear in a later edition.

January Meeting. The death of Miss Ingrid Wenham has necessitated a change in plans. On Thursday, January 9th, in the Village Hall at 8.0 p.m., a sound film about the work of the Missions to Seamen will be shown. Members will remember the excellent film which was shown to the Fellowship a few years ago. On January 9th we will see something of the work at Rotterdam where there is a large institute which is visited by seamen from all parts of the world.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP. We are delighted that Mrs. Jack Synonds of Heath Cottage, Hambledon, has taken over the leadership of the Women's Fellowship for which Mrs. Elton has been responsible for about twelve years. At the December meeting Mrs. Synonds gave a most interesting account of their Christmas in a Mission Hospital in Uganda last year, and then conducted a short service of carols. Gifts were handed to our friends from Hambledon Homes. The next meeting will be held at Beech Hill, by the constant kindness of Mrs. Bernard Grille, on Thurs. Jan. 23rd at 3.0 p.m. The speaker will be Miss Joan Lee, who is doing a remarkable work among young people in and around Guildford, especially through her visits to coffee bars. She has an interesting story to tell of her contacts with drug addicts and others.

MAGAZINE DISTRIBUTORS. Please accept our grateful thanks for your valued services during the past year.

MISS EMILY JANE HUTCHINS, a former resident of Hambledon and sister of Mr. H.E. Hutchins (a most faithful member of our choir), died in hospital where she had been a patient for some years. Her funeral took place at Guildford Crematorium on Monday, November 11th. We extend to her family our sincere sympathies in their bereavement.

MISS INGRID WENHAM. It was with deep regret that we heard of Ingrid's death at the Mount Alvernia Nursing Home, Guildford. She was the daughter of our beloved Lay Reader and Lady Wenham, and she had been ill for some months. Throughout her long illness she had remained remarkably cheerful and courageous, and she will always be remembered for her spontaneous Christian joy and helpfulness. No-one will ever know just how much she had done for others.

Hambledon will long remember the occasions when, through delightful transparencies and her commentaries, she brought us glimpses of Swiss mountain scenery, villages and homes - where she was always made so welcome. Ingrid was an accomplished skier and mountaineer.

We thank God for her life, and for the faith she professed in Jesus Christ as her Saviour. The large congregation (which came from all parts) at her funeral service in Hambledon Church was indeed a tribute to the service of Ingrid and her parents to the community. Her body was laid to rest in our beautiful Churchyard after a service throughout which there was a note of triumph and thanksgiving. "In sure and certain hope of the Resurrection to eternal life". The address was given by the Chaplain at the Swedish Embassy in London, The Rev. Dr. S. Evander.

We assure Sir John and Lady Wenham and their family of our sympathies in their bereavement.
