MISSION UNLIMITED

This commenced on Whitsunday with a day of prayer throughout the diocese. Churches of all denominations are uniting in this effort for a revival among Christians and to making Christ known to others.

News Sheets and prayer cards have been published, and your copies - if you have not already collected them - will be found in the Church.

It has been suggested that a new call to mission should be commenced at Whitsun 1973 with a year of preparation. At Hambledon short meetings for prayer and intercession will be held at regular intervals during the summer, and we propose to continue these, together with study groups, during the winter. Arrangements for July are as follows:-

Mondays, July 2nd, 16th, 30th - prayer and intercessions in St. Peter's Church from 7.30 p.m. to 7.55 p.m. (Also Aug. 13).

You are warmly invited to join us - these meetings are for everyone, and we will welcome any special requests for prayer.

"SPRE-E '73" - 27th August to 2nd September

Dr. Billy Graham will be returning to Britain for a special youth event to be held in Earls Court Arena, London, entitled SPRE-E '73 (SPiritual RE-Emphasis). The event will be a residential training programme to encourage young people to learn more about their faith: to share it with others and to gain inspiration from the evening rallies. The closing speaker at the evening sessions will be Dr. Billy Graham. From Monday to Friday, Earls Court will be the centre of all activity, and on the Saturday there will be a massive youth festival at the Wembley Stadium. The evening meetings and the Saturday festival will be open to all.

Fuller details about SPRE-E 1973 will be found in the church, and Dr. J. Symonds, Heath Cottage, will welcome enquiries. The cost of the course is approximately £3.85, and financial help could be given to any young people from Hambledon Church who wish to attend SPRE-E.

ORGANIST AND CHOIR

We are very pleased to be able to report that Mr. Michael Puttock, who accepted the post of organist at Hambledon Church for a three-months' trial period, will be continuing for an unlimited period. Appreciation of his services has been expressed by several of the members of our congregations.

We record our grateful thanks to our choristers, many of whom give devoted service by their regular attendance at church. It would be a great encouragement to our organist if others, whose attendance is very spasmodic, would give similar support. There are several vacancies in the choir, and offers of service should be made to the Organist and Choirmaster, or to the Rector.

SYMPATHY

After a long illness, borne with great patience, Mrs. Beavan, the mother of Mrs. Peter Harvey (Elm Tree Cottage, High Street Green), died recently. We assure Mrs. Harvey and the family of our sincere sympathies in their bereavement.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP - MAY MEETING

A talk about her work as the headmistress of the Byways School and Home for the Mentally Handicapped was given to members of Hambledon Women's Fellowship at their recent meeting by Miss E. M. Fountain.

One of her assistant teachers, Miss Jill Barff, described the importance of music and movement in working with these children, and she sang some songs accompanied by the guitar.

They agreed that the best therapy was love and Christianity which served as an inspiration to staff and pupils.

Mrs. Hutchins thanked the speakers, and tea was served by Mrs. Ayling, Mrs. Vickery and Mrs. Wood.

HAMBLEDON CHURCH FELLOWSHIP VISITS OPEN-AIR MUSEUM

Some 40 members of our Church and their friends visited the Open-Air Museum at Singleton, Sussex, on Saturday, 19th May.

The forward journey was made through quiet lanes, passing through the fruit country at Kirdford, where, as far as the eye could see, apple trees were in full blossom, and continuing to Petworth where a call was made for coffee. Then on to Chichester for lunch and time to visit the Cathedral and shopping centre.

A short run brought us to Singleton where the many recent additions to the buildings were observed. Our visit was then somewhat shortened by rain, and we continued to Midhurst where tea was enjoyed at the ancient Angel Hotel.

Thence to Lurgashall, where a short service of evening prayer was held, with the Rector of the village officiating. So we returned home, arriving just in time to escape the heavy rain which had been threatening for some time.

CONFIRMATION

Four candidates from Hambledon Church will be presented for confirmation at Guildford Cathedral on Tuesday, July 17th. We would value your prayers. We welcome into the full membership of our Church Patrick John Martin Williams, who was confirmed by the Bishop of Horsham at Penthorpe School on Saturday, June 9th 1973.

COFFEE MORNING - BRIDLEWAYS

Very many thanks to all those who kindly supported the Bring & Buy Sale at Bridleways in aid of The Haslemere Museum Repair Fund. The excellent result was £65.60.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The May meeting of Hambledon W.I. was held at the Parish Hall with Mrs. Cecil-Clarke, Vice President, in the chair. She welcomed four visitors to the meeting: Mrs. Jess Wood, V.S.O., and three members of Busbridge W.I., one of whom is delegate to the W.I. Annual General Meeting at the Albert Hall in June.

Members were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Joan Herman who had belonged to Hambledon for many years. She was active in so many fields that she will be very much missed. In memory of this very popular member, those present stood in silence.

After the normal business had been completed, Mrs. Jess Wood explained this year's Resolutions for the Albert Hall meeting, and replied to a variety of questions. There was a good attendance at the meeting, and this led to some lively and worthwhile discussion before the votes were taken.

Tea was served by Mrs. E. Jeffery and Mrs. Edwards.

The Fields.

The village of Hambledon, like many other villages, probably grew round a farmstead (where there was a spring or good water supply), which gathered more dwellings around itself, the inhabitants farming the "open fields" as a community, and pasturing their pigs and other animals on "the common".

Fields and their shape record ancient and less ancient history, and a map marking field boundaries will reveal very different patterns, including quite a few of the old open fields, each of hundreds of acres. There is a field which is still called "Hundred Acre" on the south side of Vann Lane. Originally the open fields were worked in a communal fashion, but sometimes whole furlongs would be enclosed between hedges, producing smaller fields which were allotted to different farms. But the wholesale break-up of the great fields quickened in the last decades of the 18th century, in a zeal for more profitable and less piecemeal cultivation of the land. Enclosure was achieved at first by a private Act of Parliament, then by local consent without an Act, and last of all by commissioners who made enclosure awards. The result was a revolution in the way of life and in landscape. Sometimes the farmers divided their fields by banks as well as by hedges, and these still survive round many Hambledon fields. But with modern methods of farming entailing the use of less men and more machinery, banks and hedges are disappearing again, and farmland is reverting to the open fields of our ancestors. Many fields had paths running along one or two sides, and this fact may account for the sharp bends in some of the country lanes, which have grown out of the field paths.
