A HAPPY CHRISTMAS

TO ALL OUR READERS

Everyone loves Christmas, and especially Christians, for it is really only they who can enter into the full joy of this great festival. It is at Christmas that we remember that the Son of God became a little baby, and we rejoice because, "Unto us is born a Saviour which is Christ the Lord". We worship God made flesh -

"Veiled in flesh the Godhead see!

Hail, the incarnate Deity!

It is inconceivable that any Christian should think of celebrating Christmas without joining in some act of worship. We have arranged services in our church at times which we hope will be convenient to everyone. This is especially a "Family Festival" and we look forward to seeing you all in God's House. Those who because of sickness or infirmity are unable to come to church will find the services on radio and television will be a great help to them.

CHURCH FELLOWSHIP.

At the opening meeting of the Fellowship held on November 8th., Mrs. Maw gave a most interesting lecture, illustrated by her own colour transparencies, about her recent visit to Turkey and Greece, and we were most grateful to her for a delightful evening. Some colour slides taken at the Rectory Garden Party were also shown.

Please note the date of the next meeting of the Church Fellowship THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13th. (8.00 p.m. in the Village Hall). Mr. Alastair Duke, of Cambridge University, will give a lecture about John Calvin, and also will show colour transparencies of Wild Life in America.

CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT BY HAMBLEDON SCHOOL CHILDREN in the Village Hall, Friday, December 14th.

LADIES HOME MISSION UNION (C. P. A. S.)

The Annual Meeting was held on October 25th., and once more Mrs. Chapman gave us a hospitable welcome to Tigbourne Court and supplied an excellent tea.

The speaker was Miss I. Cornhill of Emmanuel Church, Northwood, who gave us a delightful talk about her life for the last four years as L. H. M. U. worker in that parish.

The Hon. Secretary, Miss Denny, reported that our membership was now 43. Our subscriptions, with the collection last year, amounted to £17. 12. 6d. A "Bring and Buy" and Coffee Morning in September had also made £26. 5. 0d. The collection at the meeting amounted to £6. 14. 6d., and four new members were enrolled.

THE PARISH MAGAZINE

Our grateful thanks to all who distribute the magazine each month, and to all who subscribe.

We also wish to express our thanks to the Hon. Secretary and Treasurer of the Magazine Fund, Mr. R. G. Williams, and to Mr. Hutchins who is responsible for the advertisements.
