CHURCH FLOWERS

We are very grateful to the ladies who have been responsible for the provision of flowers for the Holy Table on one Sunday in each month. For some years now it has been the custom for the flowers to be provided and arranged by these ladies and it has been felt that this service could be shared by others, and that there may be many who would be willing to provide the church flowers.

A list will therefore be placed in the Church Porch on which friends who would be willing to provide and arrange the flowers on any particular Sundays in 1963 are asked to write their names. It may be that you would like to be responsible for the flowers in church on the Sunday nearest to some "Anniversary", and the "Flower List" will give you this opportunity.

The empty vases will be placed in the vestry every Friday, and those providing the flowers are asked to arrange them and place the vases back on the ledge above the Holy Table. The church is always open and we should be grateful if the flowers could be arranged on the Friday or Saturday morning.

The anonymous gift of a pair of new vases is acknowledged with grateful thanks.

PERSONALIA

Major and Mrs. L. P. Haviland are at present visiting Mrs. Haviland's brother who was recently appointed Governor-General of New Zealand, and en-route they spent a few days with their son, Simon, who is working in America.

Mrs. Ellington left Hambledon just before Christmas for a visit to America.

Our thoughts are with Mrs. Maw whose son and his family have left England to make their new home in New Zealand.

Mr. David Dudman, who was head-gardener at Matterydes and who had been with the Mellersh family for about seventy years died just before Christmas. He was in his ninety-fourth year and was one of Hambledon's oldest parishioners. We extend to his family our deep sympathies in their bereavement.
